

Media Release

21 January 2014

Morrison and sons storm the stage for Australia Day

Australian jazz legend, James Morrison, will be joined by his sons William, on guitar and Harry, on double bass, at this year's Australia Day concert in Melbourne for the first time.

The performance at the King's Domain on Sunday, 26 January from 12 noon – 2pm will also feature Melbourne vocalist Hetty Kate and drummer Craig Simon.

The popular annual performance is one of the major free events on Australia Day.

"Once again I'm spending Australia Day in marvellous Melbourne, playing live with my band," James Morrison said.

"We're performing at the Kings Domain in the afternoon and I encourage all music fans to come down and enjoy the day with us."

-Ends-

For more events go to:

<http://www.australiaday.vic.gov.au>

For media enquiries contact:

Vicki Bonet: 03 9651 5401 or 0400 091 934. vicki.bonet@dpc.vic.gov.au

